This is required by law enforcement in case of an accident.

We consistently receive numerous complaints concerning inappropriate behavior of float riders and the playing of explicit music. Remember children are in the crowd.

No inappropriate music and/or speech will be allowed on the float. Violators could be banned from future parades.

Inappropriate beads or throws worn or thrown by riders is not allowed. Pre parade checks could be made and any beads or throws not family friendly will be removed from the float.

No open microphones. DJ's and/or onboard music are required to play non-explicit music. Music cannot overpower other floats.

You will ensure no trash will be deposited of in the staging area, lineup or the route. We ask that no boxes be allowed on the floats. Please take your trash home with you.

The Parade Committee and/or Law Enforcement have the right to remove any Float or Rider from the parade who violates any of these rules. NO Cannon Confetti Poppers of any kind are allowed in the parade
